SANDY CLARK

Sandy Clark, an artist of all media, holds a BA from the University of Arizona and an MFA from CSU Long Beach. She is accomplished in all subjects: figures, landscapes, surreal art, abstractions, florals and still lifes.

Sandy approaches all her paintings with a passion for visual discovery. She invites her viewers to share in that discovery and to participate further by finding their own symbolism and truths in her work.

Intrigued by the use of various water media, Sandy Clark has embarked on a journey into abstract naturalism, applying nontraditional techniques. Reinterpreting nature and the structural world around us, she finds in each painting an adventure with surprising and mysterious results. In addition to a variety of media, she paints on yupo paper and other surfaces that add to the unpredictability and excitement of her work.

Sandy is represented in many private collections and will be showing at Art-a-Fair in Laguna Beach June 28 through September 5, 2007. She is also showing at Chemers Gallery, Tustin, CA, and Left Bank Gallery in Cota de Caza, CA.

Painting Workshop

The AAA Painting Workshop is open every Tuesday from 12 noon to 3:30 pm. With twenty feet high northern exposure windows, it's an awesome place to enjoy and paint. The Downtown Community Center is located at 250 E. Center Street. A good place to get some extra art help or just a super place to rub elbows with the other artists.

MEMBERS IN THE NEWS

Veronica Kortz won an Honorable Mention in the Guests Gallery "Work of New Year" Open Competition. Patti Yunker was featured artist in December and January at the SoCal Papa Art Gallery in Balboa. She is also participating in "Paint in the Park," a SoCal Papa event in which the artists paint every week in a different location, with selected works being exhibited on May 21-23 at the Katie Wheeler Library Gardens in Newport Beach. She has also been commissioned to do a private mural. Tony Podue won Best of Show in the Guests Gallery "Work of New Year" open competition. Tony was also selected as finalist in the Southwest Art magazine's 21 and over 31 Art competition, and also in the Infinity Gallery International Animal Art Competition.

PLEASE NOTE

Recently, artists competing for monthly ribbons have been moving out of their category. Please note that the category you are in at the beginning of the year (Intermediate or Advanced) is the category you must stay in for the whole year. Please also make sure that your name and phone number is on the back of every painting you hang in the Margarite E. Gallery.

THANK YOU ARTISTS

A warm thank you to every artist who came to the Anaheim Arts Council's meeting on February 3 to show their art. It's great for the larger community to see what we are capable of, and I hope you had a great evening doing it. Thanks also to Bette Comstock for providing refreshments for this event.

JOIN CATALYST

Catalyst is a new venture sponsored by Art Supply Warehouse. The Warehouse has felt the need to physically expand to give artists the chance to learn more, discover new products, and connect with other artists. It's a space for all artists to experience interesting workshops, life drawing, and exhibits focusing on local artists. Here is a list of current sessions:

Life Drawing every Wednesday evening from 7-10pm ($15/session)

Costumed Life Drawing every Sunday afternoon from 4-7pm ($15/session)

For further information about future workshops, email Rebecca@ArtSupplyWarehouse.com or phone 714-891-3626.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I have good news. After the overwhelmingly positive response to Jack King's lecture and slide show at our January meeting, Mary Daniels has scheduled him for our December meeting.

On February 26th, from 1-3pm, you are invited to join us at Virginia Hamer's house to pick up some free frames. Both she and her late husband Ernest were longtime members of the Anaheim Art Association. When I visited her I was so impressed by their paintings and also her generosity in donating all those frames to the Association. Virginia lives at 1919 W. Coronet Avenue, #252, Anaheim 92801. Go down Euclid toward the 91 freeway, past Romneya and take the next Left (Medical Center Drive--there's a Toyota dealership on the corner). The road winds but when you reach the stop sign go right to Anaheim Shores Estates--it's just on the right. Virginia's trailer home is #252. If you can help us that day, please contact Bette Comstock at 714-397-0137.

On February 12 from 5-11pm is Anaheim's "Gallery Crawl", an outdoor art tour, museum exhibit and arts & crafts fair, with live music, food and more. We have been given a space to paint in by the City of Anaheim and we can also sell our work, but ou'll need to bring your own easels. If you are interested in joining us, contact Bette Comstock and for further details visit downtownanaheim.com. The website will tell you all about the Art Crawl experience.

In cooperation with the Anaheim Arts Council, we are planning to be part of the annual Children's Festival at Center Street Promenade on May 21st. It will run from 9:00am to 3:00pm. We'll be doing face painting and a craft with the children, so join us for an hour or two.

Thanks to everyone for your participation in our association. It's wonderful to see us growing in talent and in numbers. And for those of you who have time during the day, I want to invite you to our sister Association's meetings, the Garden Grove Art Guild. The meetings are on the 2nd Thursday of the month at the Garden Grove Historical Society. It's a small, cordial group with mini-workshops and guest speakers too,

Keep painting, and hope to see you at our next meeting on February 16th.

JANUARY WINNERS

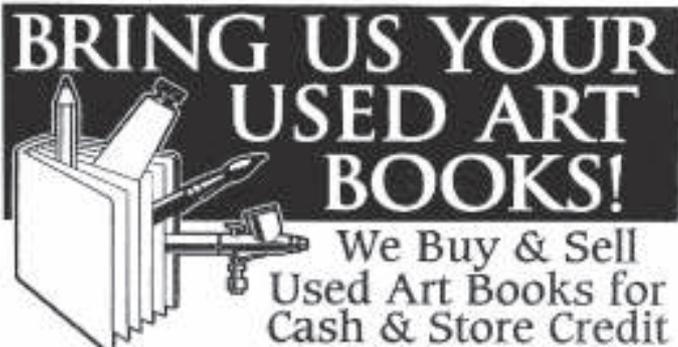

Due to a mix-up you will be receiving two newsletters this month--the emailed newsletter and a shorter version by post. I was in the hospital and Mary Daniels, not knowing my situation, sent out a shorter version to you. Sorry for the confusion.
