Demonstrator

Bernard Fallon grew up in England and graduated from the Liverpool College of Art and Leicester University's School of Photography. A keen interest in the visual world has taken him to many interesting places to create pictures – the Aran island to the Sahara, Jerusalem to Singapore. Fallon is a member of the California Art Club. And has demonstrated his painting to art organizations all over southern California. He has taught many pastel and watercolor workshops, including Riverside Extension and the Palos Verdes Art Center. His work has held in collections here and abroad. In 1999-2000 he contributed to "Strength in Unity; Expressions on Cancer from the island of Ireland and the United States", which exhibited in Belfast, Dublin and the Rotunda in Washington D.C.

Painting Workshop

The AAA Painting Workshop is open every Tuesday from 12 noon to 3:30 pm. With twenty feet high northern exposure windows, it's an awesome place to enjoy and paint. The Downtown Community Center is located at 250 E. Center Street. A good place to get some extra art help or just a super place to rub elbows with the other artists.

Presidents Message

October's looking kind of spooky, with lots of Halloween activities. There's the Harvest Festival, sponsored by the Anaheim Arts Council, on Saturday, October 30, starting at 11:00a.m. We really need help doing activities with the children, so if you can come by, please contact me. We dressup and paint faces, too.

On the weekend of the 29th of October we have been asked by Austin, the Manager of Starbuck's at Lincoln and Anaheim Boulevard, to put up a themed art show. The theme, of course, is Halloween!

Bring your own easels and one or two paintings between the hours of 9:30-11:30a.m.

And, of course, our own meeting on October 20th will be fun, too. Wear a funny hat. At the meeting the tickets and money for the Arts Council Raffle will be due. The drawing is on Thursday, November 4th at the Arts Council's meeting at the Downtown Community Center, but you don't have to be there to win the prizes (the largest of which is $1000). So do buy some chances at the General Meeting.

The first Anaheim International Film Festival is at the Garden Walk from October 13-17. I'll be there, along with Gigi McElliott and Mary Daniels. It should be a good show. For further information call 714-991-9110 or check out their website at www.anaheimfilm.org.

On November 3rd, we are having a fundraiser at Ruby's Restuarant on Lincoln and East Sts. in Anaheim. We are giving out flyers at the October General Meeting, and if you use them, the Association receives 20% of the proceeds. We can also exhibit our paintings at Ruby's--bring your own easels. Come along and dress up like the 50's if you want, and join us for dinner at 5:00p.m. The manager will have a Special for us too.

I'm on the Committe for Art in Public Places, sponsored by the Anaheim Arts Council. If some kind of artwork in an Anaheim Restaurant, in front of a house, in a church or on the street has struck you, contact Helen Carter at 714-533-2583 by October 15, and the Committee will check it out.

Last but not least, the Muzeo is featuring two new exhibitions: "Divine Reflections: Russian Icons and Artifacts from 1700 to the 20th Century" runs from October 10 to January 9, and "Mirdas: Mexican Art from the Bank of America Collection" is runing from September 10 until January.

Looking forward to seeing you at the General Meeting and hoping you will join in some of the above activities,

Bette Comstock
President

Our September demonstrator, Tom Brown, was an inspiration for all.
