October's Visiting Artist:

Pete Morris * Watercolor

Pete Morris draws and paints the world around him as he sees it, neighborhood scenes, local landmarks, downtown workers, people on the Metro trains, people he knows, people in coffee shops musicians at concerts, and travels in Guatemala, Japan and on Rte 66. He involves others in his art, teaching multiple drawing and painting classes and offering demos and workshops to art associations.

Pete has had exhibits of his paintings at various venues, including Azusa Pacific University, the Mor York Gallery in Los Angeles, Creative Arts Group in Serra Madre, Vroman's Brookstore Pasadena, Pasadena Seniors Center, Sierra Madre City Hall and South Pasadena library.

A YouTube video entitled "Pete Morris the Metro Da Vinci" tells the story of Pete's ongoing practice of drawing people on the Metro trains and another one, "Pete Morris: An Artist in the O.R.:", documents him sketching in the operating room during a medical mission. Books published include "Riding the Metro", available on Blurb.com, "Pete Morris: An Artist in the O.R" available on Amazon and "Rte.66 Watercolors", available on Amazon.

Pete's website is seelifeart.com. You can also follow him on Facebook to see current posts of his artwork.

President's Message

Next month we have our 55th Annual Juried Exhibition at the Randy Higbee Gallery, 102 Kalmus Drive, Costa Mesa, CA 92626. For the Prospectus with rules and other forms please go to our website: anaheimart.org. Take-in is Sunday, October 7 & Tuesday Oct 9 between 11 and 3pm. Opening Reception is Oct 13 between 6-8 pm during which the winners will be announced. Please bring a finger food to share! Randy Higbee is donating not only wine and water but very generously giving 3 - $100 artist awards to be chosen by Jean Stern, Executive Director of the Irvine Museum and the Randy Higbee Gallery. Best of Show is $250.00 this year with many more cash awards to be given out to deserving artists along with about 10 gift card awards.

Please keep in mind that this is a Juried event and not all entries will be accepted.

A small Closing Award ceremony will take place Saturday, Oct 27 at 11am with the actual awards being handed out. After this short ceremony all artwork must be removed by noon. No exceptions.

Karen Neal, President
